The Wisdom of the Saints: The Church

The Church is like a great ship being pounded by the waves of life's different stresses. Our duty is not to abandon ship, but to keep her on her course. - St Boniface

Remember how our ancestors worked out their salvation. Remember the sufferings through which the Church has grown. Remember the storms the Ship of Peter has weathered - all because it has Christ on board as her Captain. - St Thomas à Becket

You cannot have God as your Father if you do not have the Church as your Mother. No one who was outside the Ark was able to escape the Flood; similarly, no one who is outside the doors of the Church can escape perdition. - St Cyprian

By His powerful word, Christ gathered us from all lands, from one end of the earth to the other, and He promises us resurrection of our bodies and remission of our sins, and He teaches us that we are all members of one another in one Body. - St Anthony of Egypt

The Church is built upon the rock of the Apostles, and therefore it remains unmoved amid countless dangers in the world. She offers the safest harbour of salvation for all in distress. - St Ambrose

St Peter and St Paul, pray for us! Inspire us to build the Church of Christ and to proclaim the Gospel boldly!

Pastoral Ponderings

Last Sunday we had a beautiful First Communion Mass, and fortunately the skies cleared up for us.

I sat in front of the children and had a 'dialogue homily' with them, and they were so engaged and attentive: I was very proud of them.

But the real listeners are the parents and visitors. I am quite aware that there are those who are not very strong in their Faith, and those who do not share our beliefs at all, and I do pitch some of my comments at them.

I think Our Lord must have done the same. After all, we know there were children present at many of his gatherings: the Gospels tell us that on a few occasions, he called children to him and used them as examples for the adults. So I try to do the same.

It is my constant prayer after First Communion that the parents themselves might 'catch the spark' of Eucharistic fire, and be more faithful and fervent in their Mass attendance, to set a good example for their children. Please join me in praying especially for this intention.

We live-stream not only the Saturday 4.30pm Mass, but also First Friday and First Saturday Masses, and important feasts that fall on weekdays.

This past Thursday was the feast of the Nativity of St John the Baptist. I texted our parishioner Lien Duong, who is stuck in Vietnam, so she could watch our Mass. She texted back:

Thank you for letting us know just in the nick of time. We're in the strictest lockdown ever: all public transportation including cabs and hire cars are banned. It's so nice that our whole family can watch the weekday Mass together - so there is something good coming out of this!

Last week I had an echo cardiogram, which turned out very well. My heart hasn't changed much since my last echogram in 2013, which was fine then.

I will see my GP this week to discuss those results along with some blood and urine tests done to check the salt levels. Then on Friday 9th July I'll go to St John of God Hospital in Subiaco for injections in four places in my spine.

Thank you, everyone, for your continual support and prayers. It is very encouraging to know that so many of you care about my welfare.

This weekend, the feast of two great Saints - Peter and Paul - who literally built the infant Church from scratch with their words, their work and their suffering, let's ask them to inspire us to build up our community of faith even more - and to begin the work of building new facilities for the future.
