The Wisdom of the Saints: The Blessed Trinity

Although the three Persons of the Blessed Trinity share many attributes, it is Their love that has been revealed to me the most, and it is Their love that is closest to us all. - Bl Julian of Norwich

When the heart is pure, it cannot help loving, because it has discovered the Source of love: God - the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. - St John Mary Vianney

The Spirit works, the Son fulfils His ministry, and the Father approves: thus is humanity brought to full salvation. - St Irenaeus

God has no name given Him, because He is unbegotten. Because a being who has a name has an elder who gives him that name. The things we call God - 'Father', 'God', 'Creator', 'Lord', 'Advocate' and so on - these are not names, but descriptions of His works and His graces. - St Justin the Martyr

Let us love the Triune God, but not just with our prayers and our hymns. Let us also love the Trinity with the strength of our arms and the sweat of our brow. - St Vincent de Paul

How could there be any other Totality beyond God, or another Principle or Power or another God? For our God includes everything in His infinite Being: He is Father, Son and Spirit. - St Irenaeus

Go, make disciples of all the nations
in the Name of the Father and of the Son
and of the Holy Spirit.
I am with you always - yes, to the end of time.

But wait - there's more!

NEW CONFESSIONS TIMINGS

During Wednesday Holy Hour (6.15 - 7.15pm), and on Saturdays (9.00 - 10.00am).

SIDE DOOR REMINDER

Thanks to our new locks, we can again close the side door, but it will be unlocked during the day - simply turn the handle to enter, and then close the door behind you. This will deter 'visitors' from coming in to pilfer the poor box or other donations.

SING A NEW SONG TO THE LORD!

Good liturgical music is a high priority here at St Paul's - but it comes at a price. Please consider a special gift to support our parish organist, cantors and choir. Thank you!

Pastoral Ponderings

Last Thursday morning, our school children came to church for our annual May Crowning service. We had a short scripture service during which I gave a homily on Mary, our wise Mother.

This was followed by the crowning of Our Lady's statue to the strains of the beloved hymn, "Bring Flow'rs of the Rarest".

Then we all prayed the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary, with various classes leading the decades. The liturgy concluded with solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, celebrated by Fr Mariusz.

One of our new teachers who came to us from another school commented, "I have never seen anything so sacred done in a school!" I am fortunate that our school administrators and staff give their complete cooperation and support in the religious program I have put into place: weekly Mass, weekly prayer services in the classroom, confessions each term, Stations of the Cross and Benediction in Lent, May Crowning and Benediction in May, conferral of the Brown Scapular in July, and our wonderful program of preparation for the sacraments of First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

Last week, our First Holy Communion children had a wonderful day with Sister Lisette at the Shrine of Our Lady of Schoenstatt in Armadale. As you see in today's bulletin, they will visit the Perth Synagogue this week to learn about our Jewish roots.

Not every Catholic school in Perth offers such a thorough and truly Catholic religious program. In fact, I would wager that we are the only school that provides such a strong Catholic foundation. Let's give thanks to God that we can hand on the Faith to our children and grandchildren so well.

And we try to support our adults in their growth in faith as well: prayer groups, bible study, RCIA - these are important opportunities to increase our understanding of the scriptures and Church history and teaching. I am pleased that we always have people attending these sessions.

And, although we aren't using the undercroft now, it is good to see people coming to the Presbytery veranda for coffee and a chat. Plus, I get leftovers!

All of this activity flows from the life of the Blessed Trinity. Our God lives as three Divine Persons Who share life and love together. When we join in groups to pray, to study and to enjoy one another's company, we are living the life of the Trinity.
