A SPECIAL WORD FROM FATHER TIM
As I write this on Thursday night, I want to express my thanks to so many of you who have promised prayers and support in advance of my treatment at St John of God Hospital, Subiaco this past Friday. When you read this, it will be done - I'll be recuperating and taking it easy in the Presbytery. The doctors say it is essential that I allow the injections to do their work and let the medicine penetrate the spinal cord. So I will have to see how I'm feeling. Fr Mariusz will take good care of you this weekend. And Theodore is staying with me over the weekend to help me in and out of bed & bath.
When I arrived here on 27th July 2009, I had just turned 59. This coming Sunday I will turn 71. This is the longest I have ever lived in one place in my entire life! So it's very nice to have a 'home' with you. God bless you all.

Please pray for parishioners who are unwell: Gerard Leahy, Tony Bonavita, Billy Francis, Terry Merchant, Blanche Pereira, Lori & Tony Valerio, Rebecca Webster, Thomas Mazza, Thelma Hannigan, Franceska Fairclough, Joseph Yap, Thomas Chong, Rhiana Powell * parishioners whose anniversary of death occurs at this time: Louis John Fernandes, Greta Clear, Emily Green, Matthew Brophy Jnr, Mary Leahy, Effie Smyth, Helen Brophy, Marie Andersen, Kateryna Sluchniak, Frederick Wade, Annie Miller, Trixie Casey, Keith Wade, George Henry Grierson Jordon, Angelo Ferro, Sheila Hollier

The Wisdom of the Saints: Trials

Put a nail on a plank. Will the nail ever go through the plank on its own, no matter how sharp the nail is? No, indeed. You can only sink the nail into the plank by hitting it with a hammer. We are just the same: it is only by hammer blows that God manages to humble us and conform us to His will, no matter how good our intentions might be. - St Anthony Mary Claret
There are people who can turn anything difficult into something positive - even the winter. If it is cold, these people offer their little sufferings to God. - St John Mary Vianney
I pray that God may open your eyes and let you see what hidden treasures He bestows on us through the trials from which the world thinks only to flee. - St John of Avila
God's grace has given the King (Henry VIII) a gracious frame of mind toward me, so that as yet he has taken from me nothing but my liberty. In doing this, His Majesty has done me such great good with respect to spiritual profit, that among all the great benefits he has heaped so abundantly upon me, I count my imprisonment (in the Tower of London) the very greatest benefit. I cannot, therefore, fail to trust in the grace of God. - St Thomas More

Jesus summoned the Twelve and sent them out in pairs to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils and anointed many of the sick with oil, and cured them.

Pastoral Ponderings

Thank you for your wonderful response to Mass during last weekend's lockdown. As soon as we sent out the email announcing booking for the four weekend Masses, they were filled within 20 minutes!
And I know that many of you watched Mass online - it's so beneficial that we have kept our system up-and-running, always live-streaming the Saturday 4.30pm Mass, plus First Friday and First Saturday Masses and devotions.
A good number of parishes simply shut down - but not St Paul's! Father Mariusz and I 'kept the fires burning', with him offering the Masses while I ran the cameras and PowerPoint, sang, and preached two of the weekday Masses. Your many emails and text messages were encouraging.

I'm glad, too, that so many of you joined in online for last Wednesday's Mass in honour of St Joseph, and the Holy Hour and Benediction following. It is wonderful for both of us priests to know that you are at home, praying along with us, lifting up your hearts to God during this pandemic. We are all truly blest to be part of the St Paul's community.

The pledge money is starting to come in for the Building Fund - I'm very thankful that you are 'coming to the party' about this.
This past week I met with an architect who specialises in producing drawings or renderings of what building projects will look like when they are completed. He will produce a streetscape view, plus a 'bird's-eye view' or overhead picture, including not only the first phase - our parish centre and presbytery - but also the other phases: our church and school annex.
We'll put together a colour brochure with these drawings plus floor plans, and then provide them to everyone. Soon we will also contact those of you who have pledged, to ask if you want to maintain, reduce, increase or delete that pledge.
Pledge cards are available in the porch of the church for those who would like to join the program.
