The Wisdom of the Saints: Desolation

e who hide from You, and You hide from those who seek You. - St Augustine ness all around me, so I try to refresh my jaded spirits with the thoughts of that my hopes lie. And then what happens? It is worse torment than ever! Darkness from the sinners who live in it, the gift of speech. I hear its mocking accents: alk of Heaven . . . Death will make nonsense of your hopes. It will only mean a the night of non-existence." - St Therese of Lisieux

Pastoral Ponderings

Today's Gospel for the Solemnity of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop is a good one to reflect upon - and especially in light of our financial situation.

I tend to take a sanguine approach to finances: the money always comes in, but the Lord likes to lead us to the brink where we can worry about falling into financial ruin. He tells us: Do not worry about tomorrow: tomorrow will take care of itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own. * * * * *

Ain't that the truth? I know that you will always respond to parish needs. But Leonie, our parish secretary, is worried again about our finances. And although she's in Geraldton, I can hear her wringing her hands and biting her nails from here!

At the start of the new financial year, a lot of big bills tend to come in - and we also have the problem of some of our vendors who don't send invoices on a regular basis and then save everything up for a 'big one'. I must admit, it is a bit nerve-wracking when we have this situation:

	Expenses	Income
25 July	$6,546.56	$1,922.90
01 August	1,117.54	1,404.05

At first glance, that doesn't look too bad - but if you add up the two weekends, the reality is this:

$7,664.10

$3,326.95

And we still owe $6,208 in outstanding invoices, plus our BAS is coming up - about $1,500.00. increased our burglary insurance, so that bill will be $734.77 - we're querying it, because it's a bit high. * * * * *

Some of you attend Mass and contribute every single weekend - thank you for that.

Some of you come less often and thus contribute less often - but we appreciate what you give.

And some of you give regularly by direct debit, regardless of your attendance - thank you so much.

But remember: whether you are here or not, the bills keep rolling in, and Leonie keeps chewing her nails to the nub. So please help, if you can. Thanks. * * * * *

Our St Mary MacKillop was a dynamo. Yes, she started the first Australian religious congregation, the Sisters of St Joseph ('Brown Joeys') and the first Catholic schools - but she did so much more.

She helped the poor and the itinerant, offered care to destitute women and children, organised medical aid - it goes on and on.

And she did all of this, completely dependent upon the charity of others. For years, neither Church nor State helped her, although they finally realised how valuable her work was and pitched in. But she had raclough, Peggy Webb || trust in people's generosity - as I trust in yours.
