Community News

BAPTISED IN CHRIST
Last Sunday afternoon we baptised Saskia Izabella Murphy, b 31.03.21, the daughter of David & Urszula (Cichy) Murphy. May she always live as a child of the Light.

PRAYING FOR OUR CHILDREN
Tue 21 Sept: 9.30am Rosary in church, then a cuppa on the Presbytery veranda. Join us as we pray for our children and grandchildren.

'THE CHOSEN' - Season Two
Tue 21 Sept: 7.30pm in the Pastoral Centre meeting room, Highgate (next to Sacred Heart Church). Join us for this final episode of Season Two - or watch at home, using the app.

HOLY HOUR & ST JOSEPH DEVOTION
Every Wednesday: Adoration 6.15 - 7.15pm; Litany of St Joseph & Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Booklets available to help you focus your meditation time. One of our priests is available to hear confessions.

RCIA INTEREST
We will start RCIA sessions soon, probably after the school holidays. If you are not a Catholic but would be like to learn about the Church, whether in view of possibly joining the Church or just to gain more information, or if you are a Catholic but would like to grow in your knowledge of the Faith, please contact one of the priests.

The Wisdom of the Church: Scruples

Your mind and your conscience tell you that you have not sinned. Yet in your conscience, the idea arises that you have sinned. And from this thought arise perplexity and trouble. The Devil is bringing these thoughts to your mind! This is what a scruple is. - St Ignatius of Loyola

Scrupulous souls are forever tormented by doubts and anxiety. Their hearts are poorly prepared to receive Jesus Christ in Holy Communion. In that place of peace which religion is meant to give, these scrupulous souls make their own lives miserable; they are full of worry, and temptation. Scrupulous people distress themselves in many ways: they believe no one's advice, no counsel from a priest brings calm to their troubled souls. They keep returning, over and over again, to their doubts; and the more they think of them, the more they aggravate the trouble. - Blessed Henry Suso

The Devil likes to trouble delicate consciences, reducing them to anguish and stopping their progress in the spiritual life. - St Ignatius of Loyola
Leave something for the Angels to do! - St Philip Neri
God commands you to pray - but He forbids you to worry! - St John Vianney

Wisdom that comes from above is full of compassion and shows itself by doing good.
Peacemakers sow the seeds which bear fruit in holiness.

Grow in Spirituality

READ THE ENTIRE BIBLE IN ONE YEAR
This Bible reading program by Fr Mike Schmitz of Minnesota USA walks you through the entire Bible in 365 episodes, providing commentary, reflection & prayer along the way. He's now at episode 181 - you can view them on YouTube, Spotify and Apple iTunes. Here's the link: www.youtube.com/watch?v=BW0gXbEVYgA

NEW NORCIA RETREAT: Nov 12 - 14
We're almost full! There's only room for two more women in single rooms - all places for men and couples are now filled. Please send an email to Father Tim with your room type preference. He'll then send you a booking form. Since we have only one weekend rather than two, we're keeping this a retreat for St Paul's parishioners only. Both Father Tim & Father Mariusz will attend.

Pastoral Ponderings

Plans are steadily progressing on the transfer of Edith Cowan University from the Mount Lawley campus to an entirely new campus that will be built in the city centre, adjacent to Yagan Square and near the train station.

The present WAAPA buildings will be given to Mount Lawley Senior High School for use of its Fine Arts department.

Plans are to demolish remaining ECU buildings and construct housing for 10,000 residents.

This will impact both our parish and our school. If only 10% of these new residents are Catholics looking for a church, or are parents looking for a good school for their children, both our church and our school will need to grow.

* * * * *

This is one of the reasons why I and the Parish Finance Committee have set us on the path of new construction: parish centre & presbytery, church, and school annexe.

The proposed school annexe would be built on the site of our existing church - actually, on the area of the sanctuary (altar & sacristies), with a large lawn or oval covering the rest of the church area.

Our Year 4, 5 & 6 would move to this annexe, to permit the lower grades to become double-stream. We have huge waiting lists for the lower grades, but at the end of Year 3, a good number of our boys transfer to Trinity College, and we are left with small classes in Year 4, 5 & 6 that still require full-time teachers.

By relocating the upper grades to the annexe here at church, we can take in more students in the lower grades, and then combine the students remaining from the two Year 3 classes into one full-size Year 4.

The upper-school students would still go to the main campus on Learoyd St for assemblies, library work, dance and other events that go on in the school hall.

Since it is Year 4-5-6 that attends the weekly Mass, they would be right next-door to the church and not need to walk down from the main campus.

Hopefully, the Catholic Education Office will help us financially with this plan of expansion, which will enable us to take in more students overall.

Our architect is finishing the street perspectives of the new parish centre, church & school annexe - as soon as they're done, I'll present them to the parish.

This weekend, we welcome our new parish cantor, James Pinneri, a 23-yr-old baritone from WAAPA. James has sung here before in our choir for special events like Christmas and Holy Week. We look forward to his help in adding beauty to our Masses.
