The Wisdom of the Saints: Missions

I want to be a warrior, a priest, a doctor of the Church, a martyr! I want to go to the ends of the earth to preach Your Name, Lord, and to plant Your glorious Cross on distant shores! - St Therese of Lisieux
The people we have met so far are the best we've discovered until now, and it seems to me that among the pagans no other can surpass the Japanese. - St Francis Xavier
It would give the Church such consolation if the Chinese people, so notable and attractive, would enter her Fold. - Bl John Gabriel Perboyre

The best news has come from the Maluku Islands (in Indonesia): John Beira and his companions are constantly in peril and danger of death, and the result is great progress in the Christian religion! - St Francis Xavier

The bishop gave the Indian chief a crucifix, which he accepted with respect. Later on, the chief entered a shop in St Louis (Missouri USA), where the shopkeeper wanted to test the chief's faith: he offered to give in exchange for the crucifix a fine saddle, then liquor, and finally a lot of money. Each time, the chief refused, saying he would never give away the sign of the Author of life! - Bl Philippine Duchesne

Jesus said to the blind man, 'Go: your faith has saved you.' Immediately his sight returned and He followed Jesus.

Pastoral Ponderings

Caritas Australia thanks the parish for supporting Project Compassion this past Lent. St Paul's donated $4,789.80; the Archdiocese of Perth gave $1.06 million, and the Australian Catholic Church community donated $10.08 million.

Congratulations! You have helped Caritas in its important work of bringing hope, compassion and support to some of the world's most vulnerable people.

This weekend we are observing Mission Sunday, and we are asked to support the Church's mission efforts. Your sacrificial gift this year will help the work of the Good Shepherd Sisters in Thailand as they care for women and girls at risk.

The compassion which the Sisters and their lay co-workers show to women who exist on the fringe of society is a witness to the love of God.

Your financial support is a way in which you can put missionary discipleship into action.

Special envelopes are available at the entrances to enable you to give with cash or by credit card. Don't forget to write 'St Paul's Parish' on the form!

Here in our own backyard, we have our needs, too. On Friday a plumber came to fix leaks in the ladies' toilet and undercroft kitchen, and to re-light the pilot light for the Presbytery hot water heater. I've had no hot water for three days - but such is life!

We have wages ($1,600), BAS ($2,000), our Archdiocesan tax - $1,000) the monthly underground power debt (that's $500 every single month for five years). It's a lot, and we don't have enough.

I try not to focus on this, although the secretary never lets me forget! My theory is always this: if I work hard to provide you with uplifting worship, good spiritual support and strong teaching, you in turn will support the parish. And, in the end, you always come through - although it's usually touch-and-go each month! But I don't lose sleep over it.

I also believe that if we generously support the poor, through Project Compassion, Mission Sunday and other such special donations, God will in return bless us - the parish and also your families - with all that we need. He has never let me down.

We had a good start to bible study and RCIA this past week. Please consider coming to one or more sessions of either program. It's a wonderful way to grow in knowledge, expand your faith horizons, and share fellowship with parishioners.

I just received on Thursday the finalised drawings of the exteriors of our new parish buildings. I'll present them to the entire parish soon. Exciting!
