The Wisdom of the Saints: Purgatory

We must say many prayers for the souls of the faithful departed, for one must be very pure to enter Heaven.

If we only realised the great influence the souls in Purgatory have with the Heart of God, and if we knew all the graces we can obtain through their intercession for us, we would not forget to pray for them. We must, therefore, pray much for them, that they may pray much for us. - St John Vianney

We are foolish if we only seek happiness in this world, because we're only here for a short time, and we risk being unhappy in the next world where we must live for eternity. So don't focus all of your time and attention on 'borrowed goods' - that is, this earthly life - because we know that these borrowed goods must soon be returned to the Owner. All our earthly goods are merely loaned to us. - St Alphonsus

In our prayers, let us not forget sinners and the poor souls in Purgatory, especially our poor relatives. - St Bernadette Soubirous

As we enter Heaven, we will see them, so many of them, coming towards us and thanking us. We will ask who they are, and they'll say, 'I'm a poor soul you prayed for in Purgatory.' - Ven Fulton J Sheen

They will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory to gather His chosen ones.

Pastoral Ponderings

It was good to see so many people come together to pray for our war dead at our two parish Masses for Remembrance Day last Thursday. We have a really beautiful service added onto the Mass, and it is moving to hear 'On Flanders' Fields' and the entire version of 'The Ode', plus a minute's silence, The Last Post, and The National Anthem.

It's important that we preserve these traditions, and pass them on to our school children, who were very reverent and respectful at their 9.00am Mass.

I'm also so pleased to see the great response to bible study. Father Mariusz is doing a wonderful job, both in organising everything and in presenting the sessions with such enthusiasm.

And we have a solid group at RCIA, with several 'enquirers' who are interested in joining the Church. Remember: RCIA is for everyone - if you want to learn more about the Faith, we publish the week's topic in the parish newsletter; and there is a calendar for the entire two-year program in the porch for your reference and planning.
