The Wisdom of the Saints: Perfection

God has not called His servants to a mediocre, ordinary life, but rather to the perfection of a sublime holiness since He said to His disciples, "Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect." - Bl Henry Suso
Christian perfection requires three things of us: praying heroically, working heroically, and suffering heroically. - St Anthony Mary Claret

Our salvation and perfection consist in doing God's will. We must have this in mind, in everything we do and at every moment of our life. The more we accomplish God's will, the more perfect we will be. - St Peter Claver

There are certain souls who want to arrive at perfection immediately. This keeps them in constant disquiet. You should first cling to the feet of Jesus, then kiss His sacred hands, and then at last you may find your way into his Divine Heart. - St Alphonsus Ligouri

A happy spirit reaches perfection more quickly than any other soul. - St Philip Neri
Whether you are walking or keeping silence or speaking, alone or with others, let Jesus be your Model. He is perfect, and by following His example you will achieve perfection. - St Bonaventure

Rejoice and exult
with all your heart,
Daughter of Jerusalem!

Pastoral Ponderings

I hope you're planning on attending our Annual Festival of Lessons & Carols this Sunday, 12th December at 7.00pm. Please invite your friends and neighbours of all faiths, or none - it's an interfaith service that is always inspiring.

The church will be decorated, since Santa's helpers are coming Sunday afternoon to deck the halls with boughs of holly. So this Third Sunday of Advent (Gaudete Sunday - Rejoice! Sunday) is the kick-off to the Christmas season here at St Paul's. Join us for supper afterwards in the undercroft.

Our Building Fund had a big injection of funds this past week - thank you to all who are paying on their pledges, and to those who have made special gifts to the parish for the advancement of our building project.

Zak Kirkup has designed a beautiful brochure which will soon be available. It has explanatory text, plus wonderful photos of what we hope to build here at St Paul's. (Zak is in our RCIA program, by the way, and faithfully attends our Sunday 9.00am Mass.)

Please don't forget to note these important dates:
- Dec 21: Christmas confessions - 6.15pm (Tues)
- Dec 24: Christmas Eve Masses - 4.30 & 6pm
Choir concert of carols - 11.30pm
- Dec 25: Midnight Mass - 12 midnight!
Christmas Day Mass - 9.00am
- Dec 26: Holy Family Sunday - 9am & 4.30pm

The very warm weather this past week certainly has not helped me get into the Christmas spirit! Despite living in Australia for 25 years, I still have a major problem with not experiencing icy cold, falling snow and crisp winter nights. Sigh.

I taught our choir a nice Australian carol (from a suite of ten such songs). It sings of 'golden weather' and 'Christmas bush' (we have a lot of it in our area, by the way).

They didn't know the carol, and they didn't get the Aussie references. So there I was, the Yankee priest, describing 'Christmas bush' with its red and orange and yellow blossoms, and telling the singers where they can find it. Nothing. They'd rather sing about Baby Jesus shivering in the bleak midwinter. Sigh.

It's also a bit hard for me to feel Christmassy as I continue to mourn deaths in my family, and wonder when I will see them again. I hope you folks are grateful to have most of your loved ones close by. But if they're not, we pray: Come, Lord Jesus!
