Pastoral Ponderings

We had a fantastic Lessons & Carols last Sunday evening! A good-sized congregation joined in the singing very enthusiastically, led by our wonderful Parish Choir. All seemed to enjoy the biblical teaching of our guest speaker, Pastor Joyce Chen, who reminded us that Jesus, the perfect Lamb, calls us all to offer our lives to God in various sacrificial ways.

The celebration continued at the lavish supper afterwards in the undercroft, prepared by Ingrid Vajda and her faithful crew. This was actually our first parish supper in the undercroft since 27th March 2020, so another small milestone on our way out of the pandemic.

Thank you to everyone who read, played, sang, cooked, baked, served and cleaned-up! It was a truly great start to the Christmas season here at St Paul's.

Thanks, too, to the parishioners (both from St Paul's and the Ordinariate) who decorated the church so beautifully last Sunday afternoon. We are blessed to have generous people who worked so hard to give us all a bit of Bethlehem here in Menora!

We will have our Altar Servers gathering in the period after New Year's. With Christmas occurring on the weekend, and schools ending at different times, it's hard to plan a Friday evening that is good for everyone. Perhaps some parents could suggest a suitable Friday evening before school resumes.

I broke a lower molar 10 days ago, and wasn't able to get to the dentist until this past Wednesday. He could only put in a temporary fix because the jagged edge of the molar cut up my tongue and caused some ulcers in the mouth. And it was quite painful to speak or sing - but I powered through it, didn't I?

I will get the tooth repaired on January  $6^{th}$  - the Feast of the Epiphany, which will be a truly joyful day for me. If it ain't one darned thing ...

My Aunt Alice (89) in Omaha, Nebraska survived the tornados in the US Midwest - no damage to her house, but she hid out under the stairs! She's very hopeful I'll come home soon. But all of us should be anxious for another coming: Come, Lord Jesus!
