The Wisdom of the Saints: The Holy Eucharist

Jesus Christ found a way by which He could ascend into Heaven and yet remain on the earth: He instituted the Sacrament of the Eucharist so that He might stay with us and be the Food of our soul, staying with us and being our Companion. - St John Vianney

The Lord's Blood is poured out for the remission of sins. So it follows that I should receive It always, so that my sins may always be forgiven. I who am always sinning ought always to have a remedy. - St Ambrose

Our Lord does not come from Heaven every day to stay in a golden ciborium in the Tabernacle. No, He comes to find another Heaven: the Heaven of our soul, in which He loves to dwell. - St Therese of the Child Jesus

This heavenly Bread demands that our souls hunger for it. The Eucharist satisfies only those who make themselves worthy of It by the fervour of their desires. - St Augustine of Hippo

Today, O Lord, my soul is larger than the whole world, because it contains You in Holy Communion - You whom Heaven and earth cannot contain. - St Margaret of Cortona

I received this from the Lord, and then passed it on to you: namely, that the Lord Jesus gave us His Body and Blood.

Project Compassion

Please deposit your envelopes in the baskets next to the Mass collection boxes. Do not send them to Sydney, or the parish won't get credit for your donation. Please bring your boxes to church and leave them in the porch. Thank you for your support.

Pastoral Ponderings

As we adore together the Most Blessed Sacrament at the conclusion of Masses this Corpus Christi weekend, let's offer Him:

- ◆ our praise for the wonders of His creation
- ◆ our thanks for His personal gifts to us
- ◆ our petition for the things we need
- ◆ our contrition for our sins

Use the time of Adoration well. If nothing else, you might read the Wisdom of the Saints in the box above: there are some beautiful thoughts about the Holy Eucharist.

We are all blest that the Lord has called us to this parish. At least half of the members live outside the parish boundaries; some drive a good distance - from City Beach, from Ellenbrook, from South Perth, from Nedlands - to worship God in this parish.

I might add that the people who come from afar don't just attend Mass here: all of them are active in the parish in one way or another. They help to build up a true community of faith.

I'd like to share bits of messages I received this week:

Dear Father Tim, I very much enjoyed Mass this morning. An engaging sermon, as ever, and the singing was superb. . . It is such a pleasure to be part of a vibrant parish. . .

Dear Father Tim, I have just watched the beautiful celebration of the Holy Trinity. Thank you for livestreaming the Mass, and for your great sermon on the Trinity. I am swiftly recovering from mild Covid and expect to return to the fold sometime this week . . .

Hi, Father Tim, Thank you for a beautiful Mass. God bless you.

It's important that each one of us appreciates what we have here at St Paul's. The Second Vatican Council (1962-1966) reminds us that the Liturgy is the source and the summit of our Faith.

From the Mass we draw all the graces God gives us to live our lives well, and to weather any storms we encounter. In the Eucharist, Jesus says to us, as He said the Apostles when He calmed the storm: "Do not be afraid: It is I."

Yes it is truly Jesus Whom we adore and receive in the Blessed Sacrament. And, being the summit of our Faith, Holy Mass is the best and most perfect prayer we can offer to God the Father. Even if we are distracted, tired or bored, just making the effort to be here at Mass is an act of worship. After all, sometimes we're distracted, tired or bored when caring for our children - but we still love them!
