CHOIR PRACTICE
Mon 03 April: 6.30 - 7.30pm * plus one hour before each major liturgy this week

GOOD FRIDAY FAST & ABSTINENCE
Good Friday is a day of fast (1 normal meal, 1 or 2 snacks to sustain strength) for all who are 18 through 59; and it is a day of abstinence from meat for all who are 14 and older. Try to keep a strict fast in honour of Our Lord Jesus, Who literally gave up His Flesh (meat) for us all on this very day.

PROJECT COMPASSION
Jesus asks us to pray, fast and give alms as a way of entering into His Passion this Lent. There's still time to give! We'll collect the coin boxes in the weeks following Easter.

BUILDING FUND TO DATE

The Wisdom of the Saints: The Cross

Through a tree in the Garden of Paradise we were made debtors to God. Likewise, through a Tree we received cancellation of that debt. - St Irenaeus
I shrink every time I look at the Cross, because I could die thinking of the pain it caused Our Lord. Yet, in spite of this repugnance of mine, my heart overcomes all the sufferings it entails, and I find my delight in the Cross. - St Gemma Galgani
We must accept our own crosses in life. If we carry our crosses courageously, they will carry us to Heaven. - St John Marie Vianney
The name 'Christian' means 'imitator of Christ'. If we want to bear that noble title worthily, then we must do as Christ commands us in the Gospel: deny ourselves, take up the Cross and follow Him. - St Anthony Mary Claret
To me, the Cross is certain salvation. The Cross is that which I ever venerate. The Cross of the Lord is with me. The Cross is my refuge. - St Thomas Aquinas
Be like a shopkeeper dealing with his merchandise: he makes a profit on every item. So don't allow the smallest fragment of your crosses to be wasted Your cross today may be the sting of an insect or the prick of a needle that annoys you. It may be the little eccentricities of a neighbour, or some unintentional slight, the insignificant loss of a coin, some little restlessness of your soul, a slight physical weakness, a pain in your limbs Whatever it may be, make a profit on every bit of your crosses., as the shopkeeper does, and you will soon be wealthy in God. - St Louis Marie Grignon de Montfort

Hosanna to the Son of David!

Archdiocesan News

MASS OF THE CHRISM
Tues 04 Apr: All are invited to the 7.00pm Mass at the Cathedral where the holy oils will be blessed for Baptism, Holy Orders, Confirmation & Anointing of the Sick.

For Your Consideration

WHAT IS TENEBRAE?
This special service, which means 'Shadows', is conducted in near-darkness as we anticipate the desolation which God's people will experience at the Death of the Beloved Son of God. As we sing the prophecies of Jeremiah, candles are put out one by one, until one is left - Christ's Light. It is a Light that darkness cannot overcome.

We Are Indeed Blessed!

We sometimes take for granted the truly good organ playing and singing we enjoy here at St Paul's - it's second to none. But at a time like Holy Week, it requires many extra hours of rehearsal to learn & perform the special music that occurs only this week. Thank you, Alessio and all our singers!

The Names of These Days

MAUNDY THURSDAY
'Maundy' is an Old English corruption of the Latin word mandatum, 'commandment'.
In the Gospel for Holy Thursday Mass, Jesus says: I give you a new commandment: love one another as I have loved you.

It was the custom in medieval England to give food & clothing to the poor on this day. In our time, The King will visit a cathedral in England and give small velvet bags filled with specially minted Maundy coins to some pensioners and other needy folks.

GOOD FRIDAY
Painful as it was for Our Lord, it was good for us that He died for our salvation. This act of Divine Mercy enabled us to access His grace on earth - and in the end, Heaven.

Pastoral Ponderings

Some people ask me this every year: What should we do with our blessed palm or olive branch?

Don't throw it away! Take it home and place it behind a crucifix or picture at home as a reminder that Christ is King of your family. Let it be a visible sign of your faith - and it's an excellent conversation starter!

I ask each one of you to do your best to attend at least one of this week's special Holy Week liturgies, our most beautiful and profound celebrations of the year. Don't just show up on Easter Sunday - try to enter into the spirit of Holy Week by being with the community as we walk with Jesus from the Last Supper in the Upper Room to the Garden of Olives, from the Garden of Olives to the High Priest's house, from that house to the Praetorium of Pontius Pilate, from the Praetorium to Mount Calvary, and from Calvary to the Holy Sepulchre.

I'm pleased that more and more people, who have already attended the Stations of the Cross and/or the Solemn 3.00pm Liturgy on Good Friday (many come to both), are discovering the sublime beauty of our Seven Last Words service at 7.30pm. It's short (20 minutes), very meditative (all in darkness), and hauntingly beautiful as we recall in Scripture, song and prayer the seven last statements Jesus made from the Cross as He was dying.

I will see each one of you at something this week. It's the holiest week of the year! Let's observe it with faith and true devotion. God bless you all.
