The Wisdom of the Saints: Humility

We are humble when we can stand in the truth, knowing and appreciating ourselves as we really are.
- The Anonymous Author of 'The Cloud of Unknowing'

It was pride that caused the fall of Lucifer and Adam. What are the ways of God? The first is humility, the second is humility, and the third is still humility. Not that there are no other virtues, but if humility does not precede all that we do, our efforts are fruitless. - St Augustine of Hippo

The one who always wants to argue and contradict will always stand outside the door of holiness.
Christ, the Master of humility, reveals His truth only to the humble; He hides Himself from the proud.
- St Vincent Ferrer

Blessed is the servant who esteems himself no better when he is praised and exalted by people than when he is considered worthless, simple and despicable. What a person is in the sight of God is what he truly is - and nothing more. - St Francis of Assisi

The very moment when God sees us fully convinced of our nothingness, it is then that He reaches out His hand to us. - St Therese of the Child Jesus

The greatest among you must be your servant.

A Short Meditation
from The Imitation of Christ by Thomas à Kempis (1379-1471)

Chap 23 (cont): You may do many good things while you are healthy, but when you are sick, I don't know what you can do!
Few people are made better by sickness, just as few people are made more holy simply by visiting churches and shrines.

Don't rely solely on friends and neighbours, and don't put off your soul's welfare until the future, for people will forget you sooner than you think!

It is better to take care of yourself now, and to send some good along ahead of you, than to trust solely in the help of others. If you have no care for yourself now, who will care for you in the future?

The present moment is very precious.
Now are the safe days. Now is the acceptable time. But how sad it is that you don't spend this time well while you have the strength to gather the spiritual merit that will allow you to live for ever! The time will come when you'll wish for just one day
- just one hour! - to change your ways, and I don't know whether you'll get it.

Pastoral Ponderings

November is the month of All Saints and All Souls, and we made a good start: a large crowd attended our Wednesday evening Mass for All Saints Day - it was wonderful to see. Then we had a beautiful Mass for our school students on Thursday morning to observe the Commemoration of the Souls of the Faithful Departed.

That same evening we gathered once more at Holy Mass to remember the nine souls who passed from this life to the next since last All Souls Day. Family members and friends came forward to light votive candles that will burn on the altar throughout this month in their memory.

The Parish Book of Remembrance is now placed next to the baptismal font, containing the names of our loved ones whom we will especially remember and for whom we will pray throughout this month of the Holy Souls, and at Masses for the faithful departed throughout the coming year.

Thank you for your strong prayerful support.

This coming Saturday is Remembrance Day, when we will once again recall the sacrifice made by so many military personnel in defence of our freedom.
We will acknowledge this important occasion at our Masses next weekend.
