The Wisdom of the Saints: Satan and His Legions

Modern times (World War II era) are dominated by Satan, and will be more so in the future. The conflict with Hell cannot be fought by men alone - not even the most clever. - St Maximilian Kolbe

Eagerly attend Mass frequently to give thanks and glory to God, for when you come together for the Eucharist, the forces of Satan are annulled and his destructive force is cancelled in the unity of your faith. - St Ignatius of Antioch

Consider this: the Devil does not sleep - no, he seeks our ruin in a thousand different ways. - St Angela Merici

The Fiend selects for his most furious attacks the times when we feel most unable to pray. - St Nilus Sorsky

The way to overcome the Devil when he stirs up feelings of hatred for those who injure is to pray immediately for their conversion. - St John Mary Vianney

God cursed the ground, not Adam, and he cursed the Serpent, not Eve. He originally prepared the fires of Hell for the Devil and his angels, not men - so don't seek to go there! - St Irenaeus

Anyone who does the will of God is My brother, sister, mother.

A Short Meditation
 from The Imitation of Christ
 by Thomas à Kempis (1379-1471)

Bk 2, Ch 4: Two wings lift a person up from earthly concerns: simplicity and purity. Simplicity should be in intention, purity in feelings. Simplicity reaches out after God, purity catches hold and tastes.

If your heart is free from turmoil and conflict, everything you do will be for the best. If you seek only the will of God and the good of your neighbour - and if you act accordingly - you will enjoy true freedom.

If your heart were right, then everything in God's creation would be a mirror of life and a book of holy teachings. There is no creature so small and worthless that does not reflect God's goodness.

If you were inwardly good and pure, then you would see and understand all things without difficulty. A pure heart penetrates both Heaven and Hell.

A person's judgment reflects his inner state. If there is joy in the world, surely the person with a pure heart has it, and if there is trouble and anguish anywhere, the one with a bad conscience knows this best.

Pastoral Ponderings

We confirmed eighteen of our young people this past Friday evening. There should have been nineteen, but one boy came down with COVID, and with him all his family. That boy couldn't be confirmed - he'll have to be confirmed separately in the near future.

This is yet another reminder that we're not out of the woods with regard to COVID. Yes, I know - it's like the flu now, and we have to learn to live with it. True: but most of you get a flu vaccination, right? So how many of you have updated your COVID jabs this year?

COVID seems to easily afflict our school children; nearly every week there's someone absent from school due to this virus. The children get over it pretty quickly - although not before they've passed it on to some of their classmates and family members!

We do have many children attending Mass in the parish - thanks be to God! But one of my concerns is how easy it is for them to pass on COVID to the older folks - and we do have a good number of parishioners in their 80s and 90s still coming to Mass - again, thanks be to God!

I have to do my best to ensure that COVID does not spread amongst you when you're here in church. Remember how I told you some time ago that a study shows that incense impedes the spread of COVID? That probably goes for the flu as well. So we have actually done quite well, having large groups at Mass without more serious consequences. (Just breathe in deeply during the incensations!)

In any case, I find it odd that some people want to restore the individual Sign of Peace at Mass - but don't want to restore Communion from the common Cup! It's a mystery to me. Is COVID done, or not?

The pandemic was a significant event in the life of the parish, but we weathered it well - our Mass livestreams continue every Saturday evening, and some still take advantage of this. You're welcome!

Next Sunday, 16th June, we're going to have a grand Parish Luncheon in the school hall to farewell me, affirm Fr Mariusz as our new Parish Administrator, and to celebrate all that is good about our parish. We must plan seating & menu; so please go to: www.trybooking.com/CRXRA where you can nominate:

- ♦ how many are coming & their age group
 - ♦ food you can contribute from a set menu
 - ♦ any help you can volunteer to set-up / serve / clean-up for the luncheon.
- This will be our first big parish 'do' since our 60th Anniversary Luncheon in 2017. We packed the hall then - let's make this one even better!
